

EXCELABILITY

beyond disability

SATURDAY, 17 MARCH 2018 | 9AM-12:30PM

Montgomery Evangelical Free Church

246 Bellemead-Griggstown Rd., Belle Mead, NJ

Many people think that the approach to life with a disability is to do just what is simply possible, rather than thinking about success or excellence. Join us as we explore a different approach to thinking about people with disabilities.

PANEL DISCUSSION | RESOURCE FAIR | FREE
VISION & HEARING SCREENINGS

KEY NOTE SPEAKER JACK CHEN

Jack is a totally blind lawyer working as general product counsel for Google. Jack actively works with a number of organizations in the disability arena. He has been featured in several media stories, and a viral Facebook video on his life as a blind professional has reached almost 17 million views. "Do what the world tells you you can't do" is one of the key mottos that Jack lives by.

Register at www.mefc.org/fcn